

Terms and Conditions for Text Messaging Communication

Effective Date: 12/01/2023

1. Acceptance of Terms and Conditions

By providing your mobile phone number to Food for Others, a Non-profit organization, you agree to these Terms and Conditions for receiving text messages from us. These Terms and Conditions are subject to change at any time without notice, and it is your responsibility to review them periodically.

2. Scope of Text Messages

The text messages you receive will be limited to notifications related to Emergency Referrals and updates to Food for Other's operations, such as facility closures. We will not use text messaging to solicit services, donations, or any other commercial activity.

3. Message Frequency

The frequency of text messages will vary depending on the nature of the emergency referrals and operational updates. We strive to keep the number of messages to a minimum, only sending information that is essential to your engagement with Food for Others.

4. Opting Out

You can opt-out of receiving text messages at any time by replying to the message with the word "STOP." Once you opt-out, you will no longer receive text messages from us, except for confirmation of your opt-out request. By opting out of text messages, Food for Others will no longer send messages related to your Emergency Referral status and operation changes such as closures or adjusted hours.

5. Message and Data Rates May Apply

Standard message and data rates from your mobile service provider may apply to the text messages we send. It is your responsibility to check with your mobile service provider about any charges that may apply.

6. Privacy and Security

We respect your privacy and will handle your personal information in accordance with our Privacy Policy. We will take reasonable measures to protect the security and confidentiality of the information you provide, but we cannot guarantee the security of information transmitted through text messages.

7. Changes to Terms and Conditions

We reserve the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Updated versions will be posted on our website, and your continued use of our text messaging service constitutes your acceptance of these changes.
