We need the following to serve you:

1) A photo ID. You must show a photo ID every time you come to get food.

2) Current Address. If your ID does not show your current address, you must also bring an official document as proof of address such as a utility bill, rental agreement, car title, letter from your child's school, bank statement, etc. You may also call the DMV and they will give you a change of address card free of charge.

Warehouse Distribution Programs

US Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food Program

You may qualify for the USDA food program. USDA is a canned and dry goods program (usually about 5 items) meant to supplement your other food sources. Once qualified, each household is eligible to pick up once a month. Clients may shop in the USDA section of My Market and choose from the 5 USDA items, bread, pastry, and some fresh foods when available.

The program is based on household income. Each household must fill out an application once a year.

- It is not a full month's supply of food.
- Expiration dates refer to food quality, not food safety. Expired food is safe to eat if it looks good and smells good.
- Proxies are not permitted to shop and will be given a pre-made box.

Emergency Food Assistance Program

Our Emergency Food Program is here to help households during an emergency. We offer a 3/5-day supply of food while other resources can be accessed. To participate in this program, you must contact a Social Worker and get a referral. Fairfax County residents may call Coordinated Services Planning at 703-222-0880. Others social service agencies are listed on page 3 of this handout.

- Referrals are limited to 8 per year, our year is July 1 to June 30th.
- Referrals are good for 1 visit, to receive another referral you will have to call the social worker again.
- Referrals expire, you have two weeks to pick up the food. Once the referral expires you will need to call the social worker again.
- Proxies are not permitted to shop, they will be given a pre-made box.
